Dear Roger

I am writing to you to reiterate our continued satisfaction with the Gezolan EPDM product and people.

As you know we have been a customer of Gezolan and its predecessor, Gummigranulat, for over thirty years.

During that entire time we have not had cause to complain about the quality of either the product or the service that we receive from your company.

As you know we utilise your product in many projects ranging from Playgrounds to Athletic Tracks and run ups. At all times the Gezolan product has surpassed our requirements; delivery of the product is timely and undamaged, and the quality of the product is second to none.

Being an Australian based company we know that we can source cheaper products relatively easily, however, in observing the problems experienced by many of our competitors we are comfortable that we are using a product of the highest standard that we can confidently recommend to our clients in the knowledge that it will perform to the very highest levels.
